

ELEGANTE

WEDDINGS & EVENTS

Services Contract

This Event Planning Services Contract (the "Contract") is entered into on Jun 18, 2026 (the "Effective Date") by and between the following parties: Elegante Wedding LLC ("the Company"), an Illinois limited liability company located at 148 Fulbright Lane, Schaumburg, IL 60194, and Robin Beattie (collectively, the "Client"), whose address is 2083 N Stave Street Unit 2 Chicago, IL 60647. The contracted planner from the Company assigned to the Client under this Contract will be: Joni Taylor.

Recitals

The Company is in business of event planning; and

The Client desires to engage the Company for the purpose of providing services described in this Contract and any corresponding proposal, in preparation for the Client's event.

In consideration of the mutual promises, covenants, and conditions contained in this Contract, and for other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

1. Contract Duration and Expiration. The effective term of this Contract will begin upon receipt of both signature and retainer. This Contract will conclude the day following the event date listed in this Contract. The Contract expires seven days from the Effective Date, and services and pricing listed will become invalid after one week from the Effective Date. The terms of this Contract expire 7 days after being submitted to the Client if no signature or retainer is received.

2. Position. The Company agrees to work with the Client as a work-for-hire independent event planning company providing The Coordination and Event Management Experience as listed in the proposal for their event being held on May 21, 2027.

3. Retainer and Payment. The Client will make a 50% non-refundable retainer in the amount of $1475.00 for the Company to perform the services specified in the proposal. Upon payment, the Company will reserve the time and date agreed upon by both parties. The Client agrees that this retainer is earned by the Company when paid, and is remitted in consideration of the experience, reputation, skill of the Company, and in consideration of the inability of the Company to schedule other clients during this time.

In exchange for completion of this assignment, Company will receive payment of $2950.00. The amount shall be paid according to the following schedule:

50% of the total due upon the execution of the agreement in the amount of $1,475.00.

25% of the total due on February 21, 2027 in the amount of $737.50.

25% of the total due on April 21, 2027 in the amount of $737.50.

4. Travel, Lodging and Related Expenses. Travel and lodging are not included in the price listed in this Contract. Travel and lodging are required when an event is booked outside of a 50 mile radius of the Company's office: 148 Fulbright Lane, Schaumburg, IL 60194. The Company will make the travel/automobile/lodging arrangements and will invoice the Client.

The following charges should be expected:

- Accommodations Costs: A minimum of a TWO (2) night stay, car rental (if necessary) any overnight parking fees, and gas reimbursements, beginning the evening before the first scheduled event through the night of the final scheduled event
- A per diem of $50.00 per working day, per Planner and Assistant.

If additional events surrounding the wedding date have been booked and assigned to the Contracted Lead Planner mentioned as part of this contract, the couple is responsible for paying for (1) hotel room at the same location as their hotel room blocks for their contracted planner, if there is less than 8 hours between the end of the event (clean up end time) and the load in time for the next days event.

All travel will include Contracted Lead Planner and will be paid for by the Client. The invoice for travel must be paid within SEVEN (7) days of receipt of invoice. Failure to remit payment will constitute a breach of this agreement by the Client.

5. Cancellation. If, for any reason, the Client cancels this contract prior to or on the event date, the Company will keep the retainer and any monies paid on the date of cancellation. All cancellations must be made in writing and signed by all contracted parties. If the Client fails to supply written cancellation or cancels within (90) days of the contracted date, the Client will be required to pay the full balance of the contract. If travel has already been booked, the Client will be required to reimburse the amounts the Lead Planner has paid and any cancellation fees associated with the bookings.

6. Postponed / Rescheduled Events. If, for any reason, the Client reschedules the event due to personal or financial reasons or to the extent such postponement is caused by or results from acts beyond control, including, but not limited to, the following events: (a) acts of God; (b) a natural disaster (fires, explosions, earthquakes, hurricane, flooding, storms, explosions, infestations), epidemic, or pandemic; (c) war, invasion, hostilities (whether war is declared or not), terrorist threats or acts, riot or other civil unrest; (d) government order or law; (e) actions, embargoes or blockades in effect on or after the date of this Agreement; (f) action by any governmental authority; (g) national or regional emergency; (h) strikes, labor stoppages or slowdowns or other industrial disturbances; and (i) shortage of adequate power or transportation facilities, the Company would allow a postponement of the event date only if the new event date is available and agreed upon by the Company in order for the Company to provide the Client with the agreed upon services as listed in the proposal.

Rescheduling Fees will be charged as follows:

- If, the Client reschedules the event at least SIX (6) months prior to the event date as planned under this Contract, and the new date falls within 6 months of the original event date, the retainer may be applied to the new date. No additional charges will be billed to the client.
- If, the Client reschedules the event at least SIX (6) months prior to the event date as planned under this Contract, and the new event date falls further than 6 months of the original event date but within one year from the original event date, the Client will be required to remit a new retainer in the amount of - 25% or original price.
- If, the Client reschedules the event at least SIX (6) months prior to the event date as planned under this Contract, and the new event date falls further than one year from the original event date, the Client will be required to remit a new retainer in the amount of - 50% or original price.

- In the event the reschedule occurs within SIX (6) months of the original event date and the new event date falls within six months of the original event date, the Client will be required to remit a new retainer in the amount of - 25% of original price.
- In the event the reschedule occurs within SIX (6) months of the original event date and the new event date falls further than 6 months of the original event date, the Client will be required to remit a new retainer in the amount of - 50% or original price.

7. Additional Assistant Needs. In order to provide our couples and their guests with the best experience possible, we have included (1) Assistant and (1) Event Day attendant into our contracted services. These numbers reflect the average wedding tasks needed to be handled by the Elegante Team. If contracted for additional, surrounding events an assistant will be added to the contract as an a la carte item on the final payment.

Upon an instance where your wedding is deemed to need increased help to support service expectations, additional Assistant(s) may be added into your final payment. An additional assistant is deemed necessary when any of the following are met:

- Guest count is over 250 Guests + an additional per extra 150 guest counts over 250
- Budget is over 150k
- More than 15 Vendors are contracted + an additional for every 5 vendors after 15

Initials

Additional Assistant cost $400 each

8. Safe Working Environment. The Client agrees to undertake the best efforts to ensure that guests and attendees at the event treat the Company and its staff with respect and dignity and that Company is provided with a safe working environment. The Company retains the right to cancel the remainder of any event in the event guests and/or attendees of the event commit any instances of sexual harassment, violence, threats or other similar behavior that would lead a reasonable person to feel unsafe in such environment. In the event of such cancellation, the Client will not be entitled to any refund.

Initials

9. Meeting Scheduling. The Company will make every attempt to attend requested meetings with the Client as agreed upon in the proposal. The Client agrees to provide a notice of at least one week to the Company for scheduled meetings.

10. Vendor Responsibilities and Promises. The Company is not responsible for any of the hired vendors contracted by the Client. The Company cannot be held liable for their guarantees, promises, or responsibilities.

11. Reimbursement for Personal Items. In the event the The Company purchases items on behalf of The Client there will be an additional 10% handling fee added to an invoice that will be provided to The Client. The invoice must be paid within SEVEN DAYS of being sent to The Client. Failure to remit payment will constitute a breach of this agreement by the Client.

Initials

12. Display Rights. The Company has the right to use photos and video from your event for promotion, display, advertisement, marketing, social media, internet publication or other purposes. Such use does not require future permission or credit from the Client. By signing this Contract, the Client warrants that he/she has actual authority to agree to the use of the likeness of all persons included in the portrait or video in this manner and will indemnify and defend the Company in the event of litigation arising out of such use.

13. Vendor Meals and Parking. The Client agrees to provide the Company with a hot vendor meal for the Contracted Planner/Coordinator and Assistants. The Client agrees to pay for parking costs at the venue and/or hotel for the Elegante Lead Planner/Coordinator and Assistants those working at those specific locations on the wedding day and any additional events including the ceremony rehearsal, rehearsal dinner and next day brunch.

If parking needs to be pre arranged and not charged to room at a hotel or the venue it will be invoiced to the client (2) weeks before the wedding date and due (1) week before the wedding date.

Initials

14. Indemnification. The Client will be held harmless for any and all injury to the Company and its property during the course of events related to the Company's relationship and the immediately surrounding events.

15. Force Majeure. No party shall be liable or responsible to the other party, nor be deemed to have defaulted under or breached this Agreement, for any failure or delay in fulfilling or performing any term of this Agreement (except for any obligations to make payments to the other party hereunder), when and to the extent such failure or delay is caused by or results from acts beyond the impacted party's ("Impacted Party") control, including, but not limited to, the following force majeure events ("Force Majeure Events"): (a) acts of God; (b) a natural disaster (fires, explosions, earthquakes, hurricane, flooding, storms, explosions, infestations), epidemic, or pandemic; (c) war, invasion, hostilities (whether war is declared or not), terrorist threats or acts, riot or other civil unrest; (d) government order or law; (e) actions, embargoes or blockades in effect on or after the date of this Agreement; (f) action by any governmental authority; (g) national or regional emergency; (h) strikes, labor stoppages or slowdowns or other industrial disturbances; and (i) shortage of adequate power or transportation facilities. The Impacted Party shall give Notice within 3 days of the Force Majeure Event to the other party, stating the period of time the occurrence is expected to continue. The Impacted Party shall use diligent efforts to end the failure or delay and ensure the effects of such Force Majeure Event are minimized. The Impacted Party shall resume the performance of its obligations as soon as reasonably practicable after the removal of the cause. In the event that the Impacted Party's failure or delay remains uncured for a period of 60 days following Notice given by it, the other party may thereafter terminate this Agreement upon Notice.

Initials

16. Failure to Perform Services

In the event the Company cannot or will not perform its obligations in any or all parts of this Agreement, it will:

1. Immediately give Notice to Client via the Notice provisions detailed in this Agreement; and
2. Attempt to find another competent professional to take its place with the mutual agreement of Client(s);
3. If another competent professional is not available or Client(s) do not agree to transfer of obligations to said alternate professional, Company will issue a refund or credit based on a reasonably accurate percentage of services rendered and length of the contract from the agreement date to the event date; and
4. Excuse Client(s) of any further performance and/or payment obligations in this Agreement.

17. Liability. The Company is not responsible for lost, mislaid, or stolen property that may occur during the Client's event. The Client agrees to not hold the Company liable for any loss, expense, or injury arising from or in connection with the event with any person pursuant to this agreement.

18. Personal Items and Inventory. The Client agrees to provide the Company with an inventory list of all items to be placed by the Company at least TEN (10) days prior to the event date. The Company has the right to refuse placement of items due but not limited, to venue guidelines and safety hazards.

19. Modifications. The Client may request a modification to this Contract. If the requested modification is acceptable to the Company, and any increase in the total price is agreed upon by the parties, the Contract will be modified accordingly. If the parties are unable to agree on the requested modification, the Company may refuse to modify the Contract. All modifications to this Contract must be in writing. For the purpose of this section, an e-mail exchange shall satisfy the writing requirement.

20. Confidentiality. In the course of its business relationship with the Company, the Client may have access to certain confidential information, including but not limited to business documents, terms of this Agreement, ideas, know-how, concepts, vendors and vendor lists, inventions (whether patentable or not), customers, customer lists, price lists and other information related, gathered, or developed in the course of the Company's actual or anticipated business ("Confidential Information"). For the duration of this Contract and after its expiration or termination, the Client will not use or disclose any Confidential Information, except to the extent reasonably necessary in furtherance of the performance of this Contract. In the event of termination or expiration of this Contract, and subject to the other provisions of this Contract, the Client will immediately cease using all Confidential Information.

21. Governing Law. This Contract is to be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Illinois. Any suit brought under this Contract will be brought in the state or federal court sitting in Chicago, Illinois. The parties waive any claim or defense that such forum is not convenient or proper. In the event that any party commences an action or proceeding against the other party to enforce this Contract or any provision of this Contract, the prevailing party will be entitled to recover its actual attorneys' fees and costs therein incurred.

22. Full Agreement. This Contract incorporates the entire understanding of the parties. Any modifications of this Contract must be in writing and signed by both parties.

23. Construction. Any rule of construction to the effect that ambiguities are to be resolved against the drafting party will not apply in interpreting this Contract. The language in this Contract will be interpreted as to its fair meaning and not strictly for or against any party.

24. Agreement to Contract. By signing below, the Client agrees to have read, understood and agreed to the policies and terms listed in this Contract.
